

Kiocade

by DreamAuthentic

Kiocade is a multi-functioning business KIOSK that can help your organization boost productivity, reduce expenses, and increase sales. It's the ultimate unification of hi-tech, hi-impact, hi-fun, and hi-value.

Hand-made in the USA by DreamAuthentic (est. 2001), Kiocade is sturdy, sleek, and portable. Motorized by a powerful, internet-enabled Windows™ PC, Kiocade is pre-equipped with high-end speakers, a 32" hi-def LCD monitor (touch-screen optional, but highly recommended), drawer-mounted keyboard/mouse, and secure storage. Kiocade is also branded to your company's specifications. This is an impactful way to promote your business, generate enthusiasm, and enhance your décor.

Kiocade is ideal for "edu-taining" employees, customers and vendors. With Kiocade, you can run company videos, websites and promotional materials. Showcase your people, products, services, and directions in an exciting, interactive style. Watch TV and DVDs. Play music. Use as a stand-up workstation to access the internet, show spreadsheets, and give reports and presentations using its accessible PC and 4 front-mounted USB drives. Print documents, by storing a printer inside the cabinet. And most important, Kiocade serves as a consistent, 24/7 communications, operations and commerce system. Kiocade can generate more profitable sales, improve operations, and decrease costs by helping with: security, scheduling, administration, news, HR, job postings, training/education, order entry/fulfillment, facilities management, e-commerce, customer service, and more. (And DreamAuthentic can also develop customized software to assist with all of these important functions.)

With so many performance-enhancing, ROI benefits – you can see why Kiocade is a great "corporate asset."

But it gets even better. You see, if your organization likes to stay energized, and have the occasional team-building, morale-boosting, laugh-out-loud, feel-good-generating fun ... Kiocade transforms into an exciting VIDEO ARCADE SYSTEM. Thanks to its unique design, control panel and proprietary software interface - Kiocade can also play classic, "old-school" arcade games, as well today's hottest new console games. But it's not just about playing games for the sake of fun and camaraderie, as researchers have proven that people who take a "gaming" break during the day, are 38% happier and more productive. Even more ROI benefits!

Kiocade is singularly unique, genuinely exceptional, and extremely effective. It's cool. It goes great in companies of all industries, and sizes. Kiocade is also terrific for hotels, arenas, convention centers, stores, restaurants, hospitals, doctor's offices, car dealers, malls, and homes.
